

Mr. Kanarek Biography

Mr. Kanarek opened The Princeton Review of Los Angeles in 1983 as one of two partners. In January of 1985, Mr. Kanarek left the Los Angeles branch of the company and opened the Washington office. In September of 1985, Mr. Kanarek purchased sole ownership of The Princeton Review of Orange County. In 1991, his company was selected as one of the 500 fastest growing companies in America.

Over the last 24 years, Mr. Kanarek has given more than 1,000 speeches to over 100,000 people on tests and college admissions, as well as appear on all of the major networks as both a testing and college admissions expert. Mr. Kanarek employs a full-time staff of 57 test experts, and has a part-time teaching staff of over 800 trained faculty. Finally, Mr. Kanarek is a guest lecturer on standardized tests at Cal State Long Beach, UCI, UCR and Cal State Fullerton, and has also given expert testimony on the role of standardized tests in university admissions to the California State Assembly.