

Education Through Music Summer Family Day Camp

June 28th through July 2nd, 2010

Hurley Elementary School

535 S. Dora Guzman Avenue La Puente, CA 91744

Join us for a magical summer experience!

Camp Highlights.....

ETM teachers guide the camp participants in joyful song and play based on the philosophy of Education Through Music (ETM). The songs of ETM use language, movement and social interaction to enhance the learning process and improve self-concept. Participants delight in storytelling and visual arts activities. As an added bonus, you'll see how children learn by watching, listening and observing while playing and creating together.

About the Staff.....

George Dozet, Janet Thorgrimson, Joann Yabrof, Laura Roth, Kris Martinson and Rosanne Forgette are six extraordinary elementary school teachers with many years experience working with children in a variety of settings. They are also teachers who have successfully used ETM in their classrooms for over ten years each. Dolores Gonzalez is the art expert at Hurley Elementary School.

About Randy McChesney....

Randy McChesney is the Executive Director of the Richards Institute of Education and Research and Master Teacher of Education Through Music. As a choral clinician, adjudicator and speaker, he strives to be an advocate for children everywhere.
