

Rowland Unified School District -Red Ribbon Week Activities
October 29, 2012 - November 2, 2012

SCHOOL	Monday 10/29/2012	Tuesday 10/30/2012	Wednesday 10/31/2012	Thursday 11/1/2012	Friday 11/2/2012	SPECIAL
Alvarado Doreen Lucero	Homeroom Activities Pass out pledges and bracelets Decorate campus	Team Up Against Bullying and Drugs Wear Jerseys Anti Bullying Assembly	Too Smart to Start: Dress up like a nerd Collect pledges	Scare Away Drugs with your hair. Crazy hair day	Lei Off Drugs and Tobacco Spirit Day gam
Northam Irma Torres	Decoration day: Red ribbons all around campus. Big poster board in the hallway for all students to sign their Tobacco and drug-free commitment.	Pledge Day: Wear RED Day Student council will make announcement over the PA system. Students wear Red as a reminder to say No to Drugs .	HARVEST PARADE: Teachers choose their own "Say No to Drugs activities. Write essays, poems, and how you can be drug free.	" You're too bright to do drugs ". Students are invited to wear bright colors and sunshades.	Turn Your Back on Drugs" day. Students are invited to wear their clothes backwards	Classroom Banner Participation Display schedule: 6th/5th gr. Oct. 30 4th/3rd gr. Oct. 31, 2nd/1st gr. Nov 1, HARVEST PARADE Wed. Oct. 31.
Rowland High Leslie Phillips	Students asked to wear red . Teachers will count the number of students that are dressed in red for homeroom points. Mascots will reward students wearing red during lunch by handing out candy.		Don't Let Drugs Stick on You - lunch time activity at the window on the hideout. Team Up Against Drugs - students asked to wear their favorite team jersey . Teachers will count the number of students that are dressed jerseys for homeroom points	Don't be blinded by drugs, students asked to wear sunglasses . Not In Classrooms. Teachers will count the number of students that have sun- glasses for homeroom points. Red Food Relay at lunch on the outdoor stage.	pass out pencils that are provided through their 3rd period teachers
Blandford Christina Binner	Students to wear red shirts and/or red socks to start the Kick-off of Red Ribbon Week. Also, students will receive their bracelets and pledges on this day.	Students will participate in a " Chalk Walk " during recess. Students will write/draw anti-drug messages on the playground. Students will receive a Red Ribbon to wear.	Today is halloween. Students will participate in a character/costume parade in the morning. Students will receive their Anti-drug Red Ribbon to wear on this day.	Students can wear sunglasses on this day to show "how cool it is to say no to drugs and tobacco". K-3 grade students will receive their drug and tobacco stickers, and 4th - 6th grade students will receive drug and tobacco bookmark on this day	A perfect day to turn your back on drugs by wearing their clothes backwards. Students will a red ribbon pencil on this day.	All week the school marquee will display Red Ribbon Week. Display banner in front of school office. PTA is providing chalk, pencils and ribbons .
CDS Lori Wasson	Decorate campus, poster making, pledge signing	Speaker, anti drug movie, essay writing, poster contest	anti drug movie essay contest, poster contest, lunch activity	anti drug movie, essay contest, poster contest, speaker	anti drug movie, BBQ, culminating activities	Speakers Chief Don Fernald, Cindy Rose Escamilla, and Toni Garcia
Hurley Arlene Cardenas	Pass out wrist bands	Writing Day Theme: "Too Smart to Start!"	Decorate Door	Wear Red Day!	Pledge day! (All school recites)	Prizes awarded for door decorating
Rorimer Cynthia Barajas- Ramirez	Pass out bracelets, stickers and bookmarks	Wear clothing backwards "Turn your Backs on drugs and smoking"	Sign pledges	Wear crazy socks , "Sock it to Drugs and Tobacco".	Wear red, and teachers were college shirts.
Telesis Martha Dickey Paula Martinez	ASB will visit classrooms to discuss RED RIBBON WEEK and distribute folders.	ASB will distribute bracelets to all the students. Many upper grade classes will buddy with younger students to talk about living a healthy lifestyle and making good choices	7th & 8th grade students will watch a movie promoting having a drug free life, titled "Natural High". Viewing will be followed up by discussion and writing of what their "Natural High" is for them.	7th & 8th grade students will watch a movie promoting having a drug free life, titled "Natural High". Viewing will be followed up by discussion and writing of what their "Natural High" is for them.	ASB will distribute pledges to all students. ASB will be having lunch time activities with all grade levels that promote healthy living	Lunch time activities Posters will be displayed around the campus promoting RED RIBBON WEEK posters designed by students at Telesis

Rowland Unified School District -Red Ribbon Week Activities

October 29, 2012 - November 2, 2012

SCHOOL	Monday 10/29/2012	Tuesday 10/30/2012	Wednesday 10/31/2012	Thursday 11/1/2012	Friday 11/2/2012	SPECIAL
Rowland Elem	School-wide pledge of allegiance. School Wide Red Ribbon, tie ribbons on fence, wear bracelets	Wear Red day essay/poster contest, give out song, wear bracelets	Crazy hat day; posters due in classroom. PTA to give out Red vines; wear bracelets	Knock your socks off to show we sock it to drugs. Judges pick winning posters. Top 5 to be put up near office. Wear bracelets	Decorate doors. Maybe have an athlete from highs chool come and talk on not doing drugs or tobacco.	Library read aloud all week will be: "Say no to drugs". Being healthy. Post on marquee "Say No to Drugs". Mr. Paniagua to interview students asking them why they want to remain drug, alcohol, and smoke free. Then he will post responses on their website.
Yorbita	Distribute pledges for drugs/tobacco. Read the pledges together as a whole class to kick off Red Ribbon Week and post.	Distribute wrist bands and wear during Red Ribbon Week	Halloween (no Red Ribbon Week activities)	Crazy sock day and backward shirt day. Sock it to drugs/alcohol. Turn your back on tobacco.	Wear Red day. Encourage students to wear red, especially those who purchased red shirts to show your sport to saying "NO" to drugs/alcohol/tobacco
Ybarra	See Special Column	Poster Contest 3rd- 6th grade students make posters to promote the theme of "Too Smart To Start". Teachers award their own choices for best messages. 7th- 8th grades. Students make list of fun activities that can be done without drugs, and display them in the cafeteria. Door decorating (all grade levels). Students will decorate a paper-lined classroom door with illustrations that are anti-drug and anti-smoking.	7th-8th grades. Students make list of fun activities that can be done without drugs, and display them in the cafeteria. Door decorating (all grade levels). Students will decorate a paper-lined classroom door with illustrations that are anti-drug and anti-smoking.	Door decorating (all grade levels). Students will decorate a paper-lined classroom door with illustrations that are anti-drug and anti-smoking. 7t -8th grades Chalk Walk-Students illustrate anti-drug message on the upper grade playground blacktop	Door decorating (all grade levels). Students will decorate a paper-lined classroom door with illustrations that are anti-drug and anti-smoking. 7th-8th grades Chalk Walk-Students illustrate anti-drug message on the upper grade playground blacktop	Staff & students wear bracelets for "Too Smart To Start". Students will sign pledges for Great American Smoke out and Red Ribbon Week. They will be displayed in the classrooms. Student council students decorate the campus with red ribbons.
Santana	Distribute Red Ribbon Bracelets	Pledge Day, Jersey Day (Theme up against Drugs)		Door decorating contest judging	Wear Red Day
Giano	Students will sign the provided anti-drug and anti-smoking pledges. The pledges will be hung up inside of the homeroom classrooms. Teachers will announce the Giano poster contest.	Teachers will hand out the Red Ribbon Week and Great American Smokeout wristbands and encourage a brief classroom conversation on why we recognize Red Ribbon Week and the importance of Red Ribbon Week.	Every teacher will show a provided pre-made power point presentation on the reason that Red Ribbon Week and Great American Smokeout exists. Teachers will hand out the pee-chee folders to every student.	Teachers will hand out the provided bookmarks to students. RRW and GAS posters will be turned into room 34 by 8:00 a.m. and will be hung up in the cafeteria.	Students and staff will wear the color Red or their Red Ribbon Week T-shirts to commemorate Red Ribbon Week and the Great American Smokeout. The winner of the Giano poster contest will be announced.

Shelyn
Discuss the significance of Red Ribbon Week. Students sign pledges. Decorate your doors with the pledges. Wear superhero shirts to "Crush Drugs and Violence."

|